

Estonian R2 Challenge guide

Estonian R2 Challenge is in other words class EMV6 (R2 and A6 cars except Super1600). In year 2017 Estonian R2 Challenge has a prize fund of 32 000 euros. There are two requirements to win the prize money:

- Age limit of 17-26 years for the drivers. The age of the co-driver is not regulated.
- According to Estonian Rally Championship regulations, 2017 cars in class EMV6 must use DMACK tyre 175/70 R15 at gravel rallies. At the winter rally the tyre choice is free. The supplier of DMACK tyres in Baltic states is Triple M OÜ. Contact: Kristo Kraag, mobile +372 5650 3042, e-mail: info@mm-motorsport.ee kristo.kraag@mm-motorsport.ee

Estonian Rally Championship is an open championship.

Prize money

The prize fund of Estonian R2 Challenge is divided as follows: first place - 28 000 euros which is intended for participating in four rounds (4x7000 euros) of JWRC or FIA ERC Junior series in 2018. The money will be paid in 4 installments after each round in year 2018 according to expenditure. The prize money for second place in Estonian R2 Challenge is 3000 euros and third place 1000 euros.

If the winner of Estonian R2 Challenge can't or doesn't want to use the prize money as intended, the opportunity to use the money will be passed on to the driver in second place etc. In this case also the prize money for second and third place will pass on to the drivers in next places in overall standings. The chosen 4 rounds and usage of the prize money will have to be confirmed by Estonian Autosport Union.
